

ARTIST EXHIBIT AGREEMENT FORM

Approved by the Irving K. Barber Learning Centre, June 17, 2013

PURPOSE OF ART SPACES IN IKBLC

The purpose of the art exhibition space at the Irving K. Barber Learning Centre (IKBLC) is to provide a visual presence to "encourage the important learning that takes place outside formal educational activities." The Learning Centre welcomes exhibit proposals from individuals, groups and organizations within UBC and from the broader community. The following policy outlines the guidelines for exhibits and artists/exhibitors.

POLICY

- Exhibitors agree to release the Irving K. Barber Learning Centre and its officers, employees, agents, and elected officials from and against any and all claims, actions, damage, loss or injury, howsoever or whenever occurring, to works and other property any person at the IKBLC as a result of or in any way connected to the display of the said works.
- Exhibitors must coordinate times for set-up and take-down of exhibit items with IKBLC staff. Storage for items owned by the exhibitor cannot be provided.
- Please note the IKBLC does not participate in commercial sales. No prices will be displayed with items. With permission we will make the exhibitor's name and phone number available to the public.
- It is the responsibility of the person who signs the agreement for space use to serve as the authorized representative of the group and to remain as the lead contact on the premise throughout the period for which it is reserved.
- Please do not solicit assistance from IKBLC building tenants. Direct all inquiries to your designated liaison from Learning Centre program services.
